January is almost over and what a cold and blustery month it has been so far. As we move towards February, the sweetheart's month, I am looking at all things red. We will be celebrating with all our hearts at our next Guild meeting. I hope you plan on participating in our Block of the Month Sew-a-long, Vintage Housewife, it's such a cute and fun quilt to sew. We will kick it off at our next meeting. Starting with the baking block, so put your creativity caps on and let's get started. I look forward to seeing you all at Talahi Island Community Center on February 13th or via Zoom for our meeting.

Programs and upcoming events

Kim Hayes, Vice President, programs@savannahquiltguild.com

Hi Everyone!

Hope you all are doing well. I wanted to say Thank you to Cindy for her presentation last month. She did a fantastic job of starting us off on the Vintage Housewife block of the month! As for our virtual traveling, the next few months should be fun!

February....We'll be visiting the Missouri Star Quilt Company. We'll learn how the store was founded and learn a fun Valentines Day project.

March"Why We Quilt"... we travel to Gees Bend, Alabama to learn about their long history of quilting.

April"Batting: What's Inside Matters"... We have been able to get Stephanie Hackney, from Hobbs Bonded Fibers, to give us a live (via Zoom) presentation on everything you ever wanted to know about batting! This will be during the April meeting and is free to all guild members. Mark your calendars!

As Ye Sew, So Shall Ye Rip

After Meeting Workshops and Sew-Ons

Jan Smart, workshops@savannahquiltguild.com

I want to thank Carol Vondeylen as she was prepared to present the January after-meeting workshop on Fidget Quilts, but Covid caught up with her and ruined her plans. We'll have that workshop in the future. Hope you're on the mend, Carol!

There will be no workshops held after February's or March's meetings.

In April we will have the Fabric Painting workshop with Terry Duncan.

Please contact me if you want to be added to the sign-up list. I am away from Savannah till March but can secure your spot. I'll be contacting the names of members who had sign up last year for Terry's workshop to see if you still plan to attend. The supplies will be provided by Terry and me for a $6.00 fee. The cost of the workshop is $20.00. You may bring brushes if you have them. If you have the Inktense paints, the supply fee will be waived.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone again in March!

Quilts for Kids, Inc.

Hello. I am the Director of Operations and chapter liaison for Quilts for Kids, Inc., a non-profit that for over 20 years has been donating quilts to seriously ill children, children in shelters, children impacted by natural disasters and fostering agencies. Our wonderful chapter based in Waycross is closing after 11 years, and I am hoping to find someone to head a chapter in Savannah (my home town) or thereabouts. It's a volunteer position, of course, and the impetus is that all the quilts you make stay in your region...wherever you want to give them. Cheryl Sloan and Cindy Lukas (Waycross chapter leaders) have a list of 4 hospitals to whom they donate regularly, so the contacts are in place. Please email me at pam.fox@quiltsforkids.org and visit our website, <http://www.quiltsforkids.org> to learn more.

Thank you.

Memorial NICU has let us know they are always in need of preemie hats/caps, especially colors for boys. Any knitters/crochet's might want to take note of this.

Nursing covers are always welcomed. We are the only group that supplies them to Memorial. Instructions are included in the kits, along with boning and D-rings.
