President's Column

Laurel McKeith

president@savannahquiltguild.com

Thank you all for a successful Luncheon. We had a great time for fellowship as well as a substantial boxed lunch from Jason's Deli.

The Retreat Committee opened up registration for SQG's 2023 Retreat at St. Christopher's on John's Island, SC. There is good news and some not so great news. Thus far, 28 quilters have sign-up (paid deposit), so if you want to be put on the waiting list you want to get your registration and deposit to me, sooner, rather than later. Your name will go on the waiting list the date I receive it.

I also introduced The President's Challenge. For those who were not there the information has been sent via SQG Post, so happy quilting.

I wish you all to be safe and healthy until we meet in August... Laurel

Programs and upcoming events

Kim Hayes, Vice President, programs@savannahquiltguild.com

Hi Everyone!

I can't believe we're already into August. I hope everyone enjoyed our luncheon last month. It was really nice to be able to just sit and catch up with friends. This month Sally Shake will be talking to us about her new shop, Savannah Fabric Company. She will also be bringing samples from the shop for us to peruse and purchase, so get your shopping on!

Hope to see you there.

Kim

Ps. If I stitch fast enough, does it count as aerobic exercise?

After Meeting Workshops and Sew-Ons

Jan Smart, workshops@savannahquiltguild.com

Sign-up sheets have started circulating for the two final after-meeting workshops of 2022! If you haven't had a chance to sign up, please contact me by email and I'll add your name to the appropriate list. I will need to know what method of payment you are using at that time.

October 8th: "Odds and Ends, Part 2" with Lanette Edens

Lanette will review some points from her last workshop, as well as providing some additional information on how to improve the quality of your quilting. This was a highly anticipated workshop last time, and we have 20 signed up for this one. I am starting a waiting list now. If you have signed up but realize you cannot attend, please send a New Message on our SQG website to offer that space to other members. The fee is $20. No information yet on whether there will be a supply fee. Additional information will be provided as to what, if any, supplies you will need to bring from home.

November 12th: Triaxial Weaving with Mary Bass

Mary will lead us through the fine points of this creative weaving technique using ribbons or homemade bias tape. (I'm including a photo from the internet of an example of triaxial weaving, but Mary has pictures of some of hers that have better color schemes.) So start thinking of the colors you'd like to try, and either make your bias tape or take the easy way, like me, and purchase ribbons when Jo-Ann's or Hobby Lobby is running a sale. This sign-up sheet has only been around for one meeting and is half full, so if you're interested, let me know in an email. The fee is $20. If you have a small piece of foam core, put that aside for the workshop. Mary will post a supply list on the SQG website.

I'm hoping to see your smiling faces at a workshop in 2022! And remember, we'll be making up the roster for the 2023 season of after-meeting workshops, so share your ideas on great topics to offer.

Thank you!

Jan

Remember: All workshop fees are non-refundable, unless cancelled by the presenter or by the SQG board.

Community Outreach: Nursing Covers & Pillowcases

Jan Howard, sunfish2@att.net

I delivered 15 nursing covers, 2 blankets, and 7 caps to Memorial Hospital in July. Thanks to all that made this possible! Please remember to return the instructions when you turn in your finished nursing covers.

Community Outreach - Brighten the world of a sick child

Cindy Strubbe

Memorial NICU has let us know they are always in need of premie hats/caps, especially colors for boys. Any knitters/crochet's might want to take note of this.

Nursing covers are always welcomed. We are the only group that supplies them to Memorial. Instructions are included in the kits, along with boning and D-rings.
