President's Column

Hi Everyone!

I hope that you all have been going through your sewing rooms, collecting your items for our Yard Sale. Setting up Friday for yard sale for the meeting Saturday.

After the last meeting there were some concerns regarding Show and Tell, our meeting, vs enough time to shop. So, in order to ensure that we have enough time for everything, the August meeting will start at 9:30 with Check-in beginning at 9:15. The Yard-Sale will be extended past noon if we need to. The Church was kind enough to allow us more time. So there should be no need for us to rush through the morning. We'll have a brief meeting first, followed by Show and Tell, then we start the yard sale. I hope this works for everyone. Show and Tell is an important part of our meeting and I didn't want to cancel it for a second month. It's a great way to get ideas and see our peers improving their skills.

We will still be signing up for the September Dresden Reimagined Class at the August meeting. We still have spots open. Candyce has been kind enough to extend our cancellation deadline until Saturday afternoon of our August 12th meeting. If you definitely plan on taking the class, we would still appreciate you contacting Judy Walker before the 8/12 meeting. That will help us get a better handle on where we're at. Of course, we will still be taking any sign-ups up through that morning. See you at the Sale! Kim

Programs and upcoming events

Peggy Caldwell, Vice President, programs@savannahquiltguild.com

My quilting journey began with seeing talented quilters create extraordinary quilts. I thought “Hey, I can try to make a quilt too!” Fifteen years later I’m still learning and loving this craft. Being a guild member opens many doors and all we need to do is walk through them. Theresa has done a great job coordinating the 8/12 Yard Sale! Be sure and gather your quilt related items to sell and/or save money to buy.

Hope you are enjoying your summer!

Peggy

Things to do this month...

- “Friday Sew Bee”.

Friday bee is four hours of sewing fun with ladies that love to quilt. The Sew Bee meets from 10 :00 am to 2:00 pm at Talahi Island Community Center. Contact Renee Christensen at rippinrenee@gmail.com to be put on a wait-list to join as a member.

- ◆ Modern Quilting Bee

The modern bee meets on the third Wednesdays of each month at the Talahi Island Community Center from 1 - 4:30 pm. There is a $3 room rental fee per participant. Anyone interested in modern quilting is welcome. Bring your sewing machines. We spend about 1 ½ sessions on a project. Sessions are led by volunteer guild members who share modern techniques they know. Email messages are sent to everyone in advance reminding them of the work to be done at the next session and of supplies needed. Contact me by email or phone.

Rita Richey rrichey2wayne.edu or 248-933-7215

- ◆ Monday Zoom

Several quilt guild members meet each Monday at 11am for the Monday Quilting Zoom, group. If you would like to join us please let me know and I will add you to the email list. We would love to see you on Monday mornings at 11 am.

Community Outreach: Nursing Covers & Pillowcases

Jan Howard, sunfish2@att.net

I will be delivering 16 nursing covers, 1 blanket and 9 caps to Memorial Hospital. As always, THANKS to our sewers, knitters and crocheters! You are a great bunch!

Jan

Community Outreach - Brighten the world of a sick child

Cindy Strubbe

Memorial NICU is always in need of hats/caps for the babies. The very small preemies cannot wear them, but as they grow and the larger children in there do use them. They may be used in the ISN, Intermediate Special Care Nursery, also.

Member Spotlight July 2023

Please join me in welcoming two new members who joined July 2023: Frances Stockton and Mary Halfpenny. Read more about Frances Stockton and previous new members below.

Frances Stockton, a retired Registered Nurse, was born and raised in Savannah. Frances began sewing as a young child and has made many garments for herself, her children as well as her grandchildren. Her quilting journey started in 2007 when she was intrigued by the “Let’s Sew” quilt shop in Savannah and began taking quilting classes to learn more. She started out making whole cloth quilts that she tied then advanced to many of the Eleanor Burns patterns. She considers herself a traditional quilter and gives her quilts away. She loves vintage sewing machines and has quite a collection of Singer, Kenmore, Brother, Janome and Bernina. Frances describes her fabric stash as filled with batiks, novelty fabrics, old quilting cottons that were given to her and garment fabrics. She says, “I’m not a perfectionist because finished is better than perfection.”

Justin Lane, is a native of Tybee Island, Georgia who remained in the Savannah area his entire life. He is a professional barber who provides private services to his long-term customers. His earliest memory of a quilt is one that his grandmother gave him as a child that comforted him whenever he was ill. He treasures his small collection of quilts that are mainly tattered and torn, coming from thrift shops. He loves these types because they have a story to tell. Justin became the only quilter in his family about 14 years ago when Mitzi Crow taught him to use a sewing machine and he became immediately hooked. He mainly makes baby quilts for family and friends. Justin took advantage of Hancock’s going out of business sale to start his vast collection of batik fabrics. He saves all his fabric scraps because “they can always be used for something.” Justin’s Maltipoo “Peppy” is living proof that a dog is a man’s best friend.

Cindy Wallace, a Texas native now living in Claxton, Georgia, began her quilting journey at the age of 5 while sitting under her mother's quilting frame listening to gossip. She was given scraps of fabric which she turned into Barbie doll clothes and doll quilts. She recently retired as a Reference Desk Librarian and Manager of the Maker's Space at the Library in Amarillo, Texas where she taught Longarm Quilting. She has a Masters of Fine Arts with an emphasis on Photography and has taught at Georgia Southern University. Her passion for history led her to write 3 books: "Savannah, Immortal City", "Bankers, Brokers, and Bay Lane" and "Civil War Spies". Many years ago, Cindy took classes from Lanette Eden at the Colonial Quilt Shop in Savannah. She considers herself a traditional/modern quilter and describes her fabric stash as full of batiks, a vast collection of Kona cottons, Day of the Dead fabrics and Fossil Fern fabrics. When she is not quilting and researching history, she finds enjoyment in crocheting and gardening. Her favorite book is the "Graveyard Quilt" by Elizabeth Roseberry. She gives her quilts to friends and family but mostly to her sons and uses the scraps to make postcards to mail.
