Savannah Quilt Guild News

President's Column

Kim Hayes

president@savannahquiltguild.com

Hi Everyone!

I think we all can say that last month's Yard Sale was a huge hit! Over fifty of us shopped till we dropped. We took in a little over $5,000. Which means the guild will make around $1,000. Theresa Sapp and Jan Howard are still working hard to finalize how much each vendor will receive. Thank you to everyone who helped set up, clean up and organize. It was truly a group effort.

For our September meeting, Candyce Grisham will be flying in for the Dresden Revisited Class on Friday and her presentation for the meeting on Saturday. We still have four spots left for the Friday class. It is not too late to sign up! Candyce will be bringing, for purchase, the rulers needed for the class. So you may purchase the day of, if necessary. If you are interested, please contact Judy Walker... 912-547-3166.

So, it's time to start thinking about this year's President's Challenge! For all of our new members, each year, the current president announces a unique guild challenge for members to make. (only if you want to, this is voluntary) If you choose to participate, you'll bring your completed project to show at our December Christmas meeting. My goal for this challenge was to find something that might inspire our newer members to participate. My challenge this year is "Black, White and a Pop". Your project will be the colors black, white and a "pop" of a third color. You may choose any color for the "pop". Your "pop" of color shouldn't exceed 25% of the total color. (Just guess your best for the 25%...I promise I won't send the Fabric Force to your home) The only other requirement is that it be a machine sewn project. It doesn't have to be quilt or quilted. Use your imagination! I'll talk about this at the meeting if there are questions. See you all soon.

Kim

Programs and upcoming events

Peggy Caldwell, Vice President, programs@savannahquiltguild.com

Our September program “Dresden Plates Reimagined” will be led by our visiting instructor Candyce Grisham. She will be sharing her expertise and passion for creating the Dresden plate block and how to use them in your quilting and sewing projects. Candyce’s book Reimagined Dresden which contains twenty-five design elements will be available for sale at the meeting.

Theresa Sapp’s work continues to amaze us! We appreciate the early mornings, late nights and all the expertise she shares with our Guild. The Yard Sale was superb! Thanks to Theresa and guild members who helped make this project such a success!

Peggy

August Yard Sale Update

Our Guild Yard Sale was a tremendous success!

And that is because of each of you! There were lots of helpers to set up the tables and chairs. Each seller did a great job setting up their sales area. And, most importantly, our members showed up and shopped!! It was a fun morning and I hope that each of you found a bargain or two. Our total sales were $5,345.70.

The total payout to our sellers was $2,101.40.

Marilyn Smith's estate portion was $2,157.56 which will be donated to the Humane Society in her name.

The guild earned $1,086.74!! Thank you to everyone who helped, before and after. And a big thanks to our "vendors" who took the time to participate and price their goods. I'm already looking forward to the next Yard Sale (in two or three years)!

Things to do this month...

- “Friday Sew Bee”.

Friday bee is four hours of sewing fun with ladies that love to quilt. The Sew Bee meets from 10 :00 am to 2:00 pm at Talahi Island Community Center. Contact Renee Christensen at rippinrenee@gmail.com to be put on a wait-list to join as a member.

- ◆ Modern Quilting Bee

The modern bee meets on the third Wednesdays of each month at the Talahi Island Community Center from 1 - 4:30 pm. There is a $3 room rental fee per participant. Anyone interested in modern quilting is welcome. Bring your sewing machines. We spend about 1 ½ sessions on a project. Sessions are led by volunteer guild members who share modern techniques they know. Email messages are sent to everyone in advance reminding them of the work to be done at the next session and of supplies needed. Contact me by email or phone.

Rita Richey rrichey2wayne.edu or 248-933-7215

- ◆ Monday Zoom

Several quilt guild members meet each Monday at 11am for the Monday Quilting Zoom, group. If you would like to join us please let me know and I will add you to the email list. We would love to see you on Monday mornings at 11 am.

Community Outreach - Brighten the world of a sick child

Cindy Strubbe

Memorial NICU is always in need of hats/caps for the babies. The very small preemies cannot wear them, but as they grow and the larger children in there do use them. They may be used in the ISN, Intermediate Special Care Nursery, also.

Savannah Quilt Guild Annual Retreat

February 15-18 2024 John's Island at St. Christophers

Thanks for the wonderful turnout for retreat sign-up! Looks like everyone is excited about having all day Thursday to sew if they would like to come early in the day. We are full with a waiting list of three.

Feel free to call me if you have any questions.

Member Spotlight September 2023

Please join me in welcoming two new members to the guild, Cheryl Slusser and Diane Burch who joined August 2023. Read more about Cheryl below.

Cheryl Slusser, originally from northern Indiana, moved to Savannah 16 years ago. She is a retired Professional Minister in the United Church of Christ. Cheryl is brand new to quilting so be gentle with her. She has no fabric stash and no sewing machine. She plans to do small projects such as wall hangings by hand. Although she has no quilting history, she is very familiar with the needle arts like embroidery and crewel work. She is very interested in hand applique and plans to sell her items at the craft fair to be held October 21, 2023 at the White Bluff Presbyterian Church.
